Integrated K9 Services, its contractors and the owners of facilities and establishment(s) are committed to taking the precautions and due diligence required for the safety of all dogs, handlers and visitors. Integrated K9 Services, contractors, owners of facilities and establishments will not be held responsible for any injuries to dogs or people, damage to equipment or property, lost, damaged or stolen items, equipment or property. All dogs must show recent proof of vaccinations which includes the Bordetella vaccine (kennel cough). The instructors/trainers, facility owners or representatives may refuse entry or may ask handlers and their dogs to leave if they feel that there is an unsafe condition or situation. All dogs must wear equipment that is approved by the instructor and handlers agree to comply with all training methods, recommendations and class rules. Please note: Permission must be obtained from the instructor to bring young children to class.

Integrated K9 Services, its contractors and the owners of facilities and establishment(s), will not be held liable for any actions by any persons or animals in the facility or during any training session privately or in a group. The handler(s) are aware of the abilities of dogs and that any deviation from the instructor's direction could result in an injury or accident. Owners/handlers, and those participating in classes with them, are responsible for their dog's actions. All classes, private or group, are prepaid and non-refundable. Credit will not be given for missed classes. Any missed classes must be completed within 4 weeks of the final class date or by making other arrangements acceptable to the trainer. We reserve the right to use any photos or video for our website, print or social media.

By giving us your email and/or home or cell phone number, you are giving us permission to contact you.
